

To: FCC Chair Michael Powell

I fell very strongly that medias consolidation should have more public debate. The law may be old but so is the constitution of the USA. This is not reason for change. We have far to much ownership of our media by to few people and it shows in there lack of reporting on the corruption in the Bush administration. I am against this rule change.